GARDEN CONCEPTS CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY WITH CONTRIBUTION TO GLENVIEW PUBLIC LIBRARY

May 27, 2004, Glenview, IL—The Glenview Public Library recently received a contribution and a book donation on behalf of Glenview resident Tim Thoelecke Jr., the founder and president of Garden Concepts, Inc., a local landscape design firm.

“We are celebrating our 15th anniversary as a Glenview-based firm and wanted to give something back to the community that has supported us over the years,” said Thoelecke. Garden Concepts, Inc. is located at 1926 Waukegan Road in Glenview.

Executive Librarian, Vicki Nowak, was most appreciative of the two copies of This Old House Complete Landscaping to which Thoelecke lent his expertise in the Ideas section of the book, as well as the contribution. “We plan to use it to expand our gardening and botanical collection, ” said Nowak.

Thoelecke is a frequent contributor to local and national garden publications and has lectured at the Chicago Botanic Garden, Morton Arboretum, and professional trade conferences as well as local garden clubs. He is a past president of the Association of Professional Landscape Designers (APLD) and is currently the president of the Illinois Chapter of APLD. Thoelecke studied landscape design at Duke University and England’s prestigious Inghbald School of Design in London.
